

ADF&G

ADF&G staff submit proposals, provide information, analyses and recommendations on proposals to advisory committees, the public, and the Board of Game.

Info

Advisory Committees

Advisory committees are comprised of local citizens that meet to discuss fish and wildlife concerns. ACs submit and comment on proposals and provide testimony to the Board.

Proposals & Comments

The Public

The public may bring concerns to their local Advisory Committee or submit their own proposals, written comment, or testimony to the Board of Game.

Proposals

Comments

Proposals & Comments

Proposals & Comments

7 members appointed by the governor

2 regulatory meetings per year that are open to the public

On a 3 year cycle, proposals are considered for each ADF&G region

Alaska Board of Game

Majority Vote of the Board

New Hunting & Trapping Regulations

After a legal review, ADF&G publishes the regulations, and Alaska Wildlife Troopers enforce them.

Learn more at: boardofgame.adfg.alaska.gov